DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on January 15, 2004 under 37 CFR 1.116 is sufficient to overcome the Hassett(5,805,082) reference.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-8 and 99-188 are allowed.

Reasons for the Indication of Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Prior art was found which disclosed remotely transferring funds between different accounts using personal computers and telephones (Kight et al, 5,383,113)(Benton 4,341,951)(Atalla, EP 131,906). Prior art was also found which disclosed using wireless devices (transponders) in vehicle to remotely pay toll charges (Hassett, 5,805,082). However, prior art could not be found which identified the user's account and completed the desired transaction based on the identification number of the cellular phone (i.e. user identification information transmitted on the subchannel of a cellular phone) which is automatically transmitted to the service provider upon activation of the phone (the claimed "wireless telephone identification information"). Therefore, it is the use of this automatic identification signal transmitted by cellular telephones to identify the user and his account which the Examiner considers the novelty of the invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Submission of Original Patent

4. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

The original patent, or a statement as to loss or inaccessibility of the original patent, must be received before this reissue application can be allowed. See 37 CFR 1.178.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
